This shoot is all about soft, entertaining targets. We are telling you up front that while not a “trap” target shoot... there will be lots of people from many classes in the 90’s! As always we will make you work a bit, and maybe scratch your cranium on occasion.

This is EVENT #3 of 5 for our Quail Point All-Around Series. For more information on the series as well as our other clay events go to www.pacificshotgunacademy.com

Build your target memory as we emphasize high value and low stress.
